

ITSA 2026

The 2nd International Symposium on Intelligent Technologies for Smart Agriculture

As agriculture continues to advance toward modernization, digitalization, and intelligent transformation, technologies such as AI, IoT, robotics, and big data are accelerating the growth of precision and smart farming. In this evolving landscape, the 2nd International Symposium on Intelligent Technologies for Smart Agriculture (ITSA 2026), to be held from August 21–23, 2026, in Bangkok, Thailand, serves as a premier platform to present emerging innovations, connect global experts, and explore effective pathways for integrating intelligent technologies into modern agricultural practices.

Call For Papers

Topics of interest for submission include, but are not limited to:
More topics, please visit: <https://itsa.cc/cfp.html>

- ✦ Track 1: Models and Algorithms for Smart Agriculture
  - Large Model Applications in Precision Farming
  - Trait Prediction Models for Crop Breeding
  - AI-driven Decision Support Systems in Agriculture
- ✦ Track 2: Agricultural Sensors, Robotics and Automation
  - Environmental Monitoring Sensors
  - Soil Moisture and Temperature Sensors
  - Crop Health Monitoring Sensors
- ✦ Track 3: Smart Livestock and Precision Animal Farming
  - Automated Feeding
  - Intelligent Monitoring Systems for Animal Health
  - Precision livestock Farming
- ✦ Track 4: Agricultural Big Data and Supply Chain
  - Data Mining in Agriculture
  - Agricultural Big data Collection and Processing Technologies
  - Precision Farming Data Analysis
- ✦ Track 5: Smart Technologies for Sustainable and Resilient Agriculture
  - Blockchain for Sustainable Agriculture
  - AI-based Systems for Sustainable Water Management
  - Greenhouse Gas Monitoring and Mitigation Systems
